

Annual meeting 2023

Saturday, May 13, 2023

Tim Eisele, President presiding

Financial update

President Tim Eisele gave an overview of the organization's finances, including sources of income (tuition, grants, and fundraising). He encouraged families to consider contributing to the CCSA endowment fund to help ensure long-term funding for CCSA.

Election of new board members

Jeremy Brown: approved unanimously for a three year term

Sara Williams: approved unanimously for a three year term

Haley Frederickson: approved unanimously to be renewed for a three year term¹

Tim Eisele: approved unanimously to be renewed for a three year term²

Registration update

Fall forms are currently being updated. They should be available by the end of May. Families are encouraged to register early as lesson times will fill quickly with a nearly full studio.

Respectfully submitted

Maria Bergstrom, board secretary

¹ Haley was actually approved at the 2022 annual meeting. The secretary made an error and missed the 2022 vote when calculating who was due for renewal.

² Tim was actually approved at the 2022 annual meeting. The secretary made an error and missed the 2022 vote when calculating who was due for renewal.